The Commissioner and Director of Agriculture , AP, Hyderabad had awarded the penalty of withholding of (3) three increments with cumulative effect against him.

2. Aggrieved by the penalty, the Officer had filed appeal petition in Government. Government had observed that the penalty imposed by the disciplinary authority against the appellant was appropriate, hence his appeal was rejected Vide. reference 1st read above.

3. Sri. Khaja Moinuddin has filed revision petition in the reference 2nd read above against the orders of Government passed in appeal petition. In his representation he has stated that, the MPEO had attended to her legitimate duties regularly, and she was used to prepare periodical reports and seasonal reports and was attending teleconference convened by District Collector, JDA, and she fulfilled all legitimate duties assigned to her in conducting OFFDS and in implementing Departmental Schemes. 4. Government have carefully examined the revision petition of the individual and observed that the charges are minor, and that there is no loss on Government expenditure; and that the individual has stated that he was mentally disturbed. It is further observed in respect of charge (3) that the salaries of these months should have not been paid, since he failed to sign in the attendance register in the months of June, July, October and November 2003. 5. Government accordingly, hereby reduce the penalty to that of one increment with out cumulative effect.
